SCORED PULPIT AND PEW,

MEN WHO SERVE CHRIST ON SUNDAY AND THE DEVIL ON OTHER DAYS.

Orator John G. Wooley Says the Lar Is Full of Christians Who Talk Against the Liquor Traffic, but Vote for It.

The address delivered at the Auditorium resterday afternoon by John G. Wooley, of Chicago, on the duty of the Christian man with reference to the whisky traffic was a very entertaining and instructive one. The audience that greeted the speaker was not as large as the character and excellence of excellence of the address warranted, but it was one in full sympathy with the ear-nest exhortations of the speaker, and the eloquent passages and strong facts fear-lessly stated were applauded to the echo. The speaker has remarkable command of the English language. While he was a new man to the people of the city his fame had preceded him, and it was plain to be seen that he met fully the expectacaught at the bottom. The spectators held their breath yesterday when Kiuta started on his perilous Journey, but he made it in safety.

Another of the most interesting and difficult feats performed is the human top act, in which the is-year-old girl Kwiyo spins the 8-year-old lad Kochyo on her feet with lightning-like rapidity. This exhibition pleased the crowd immensely and called forth repeated applause. These are only two of the difficult feats performed. There seems to be nothing in the line of juggling, balancing or acrobatic feats of which Takazawa's Japs are not the masters and their work is done with such ease and grace that the fullest admiration of the spectators is compelled.

Takazawa's troupe will be at Washington park all this week and will give exhibitions every afternoon and evening. They have an endless number of feats and the programme will be varied at every performance. A particularly attractive feature of the exhibition of the Japs is their brilliantly handsome costumes, which are elegant and costly. During their performances are changed no less than eight times and each costumes deems finer than the last.

The spiendid musical programme rendered by the justify famous Washington Park Military band, the lake with its fleet of fine boats and all the other hundred and one attractions of Washington park contributed to make the formal opening for the season a grand success. It was one of the red letter days in the history of the park and will be long remembered by the thousands of visitors.

Hatton Goes to the Penitentiary.

Joseph Hatton, the troublesome "short man," will scheme no more to break out of the county jail. He has ceased to be a resident of Kansas City. Yesterday morning early, in company with three other prisoners, he was taken to the penitentiary at Jefferson City. Marshal Henry Stewart, assisted by Deputy Frank Stewart, accompanied the prisoners. Besides Hatton, who will serve ten years for highway robbery, there were Frank Conners, sentenced to five years for grand larceny; Mike McDonald, three years for burglary, and George McHenry, colored, two years for assault with intent to kill.

JAPS AT WASHINGTON PARK.

Formal Opening of This Favorite Resort Attracted a Tremendous Crowd Yesterday.

Threatening weather could not keep the crowds away from Washington park yesterday. The fact had been advertised that this most popular of all Kansas City's pleasure resorts was to be formally opened with a big free show by Takazawa's unrivaled troupe of Japanese Jugglers and acrobats, and the people having made up their minds in advance to go would not be go early and they kept on soing late. There was a crowd at the park early in the forenoon and by the middle of the afternoon it had swelled to immense proporal. It goes without saying that every man, woman and child who went to Washington park yes-terday to see the wonderful exhibition of the Japa came home convinced for the most thrilling of the exhibition is the daring slide for life of little leyear-old Kiuta, who, standing on a tight rope of the most thrilling of the exhibition is afety.

Trip Up the Nile and a Climb to the Holy City-The Church of the Holy Sepulcher - Tomb of the Lord Visited.

Nearly all the seats in the Young Men's Nearly all the seats in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium were filled at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The occasion was a reception to and ad-dress by Rev. Charles B. Mitchell, D. D., pastor of the Grand Avenue Methodist church. Dr. Mitchell's home-coming from a tour of Egypt and the Holy Land was made the occasion of a reception by the young men of the city and they turned out in large numbers to listen to his descrip-tion of the historic ground of the Bible under the Old and New Testaments. Secretary Wilson, of the association, presided and the music was in charge of the choir of Dr. Mitchell's church. of Dr. Mitchell's church.

The early portion of the meeting-for resolved itself into one-was devoted to a song service. The choir sang a couple of anthems and led the audience in singing a number of selections from the association hymnal. Secretary Wilson read the First Palm as the lessent and Dr. D. T. First Psalm as the lesson, and Dr. R. T. Smith, of the Summit Street church, led in prayer. Then Dr. Mitchell addressed the young men on the events and sights of e young men on the events and sights of the young men on the events ama signts of its trip. He said:

"Spurgeon said it was a perilous thing This Christian to visit the Holy Lann. Such a source. He also said that he feared that it he visited the scenes of the history of the religion of Christ, he would lose said. I would say that it is not a perilous thing for a Christian to go there, but it would be a perilous thing for a doubter to do save the said of the would come a perilous thing for a doubter to do save the man of no faith would come away from Jerusalem, uterly disgusted with the whole story of salvation through Christ. "I doubted the correctness of the location of the spots said to be covered by the church, and was met with rebuke. They have been the accepted locations ever since Helena, the mother of Constantine, made her plous pligrimage from Byzantium to Jerusalem for the purpose of marking the tomb of the Savior. When she arrived, she admits herself, she could find nobody who could tell her where it was. Then she had a vision and an angel told her where to dig. She dug, and found three crosses. The healing powers of one proclaimed it the true cross. Since then for fourteen centuries, this vision-located spot has been recognized as correct. Ye' recent excavations tend to establish the belief that the location is not correct. There is Golgotha, the place of the skull. It is properly nagued, as the hill is the shape of a skull, its summit can be seen from the housetops of the whole city. Around it on three sides, the adjoining hills seemingly furnish a vast amobit heater, where millions of people could have witnessed the awy, cut in the face of the rock, is a tomb, not completed like the others. I entered it, going up seven steps, and looked in. It seemed like the tomb in which the Lord was laid away after the agony of the cross.

"It seems to me the place of the death, the tomb of the Lord, has been lost for ares, and that it was part of the divine plan that it should never be known. This was for the reason that Christ was not to be worshiped in any one particular spot, but that any place might be holy ground if the fire of faith warmed it."

CHURCH DEDICATED.

Handsome New Place of Worship at Twen-ty-second and Prospect.

The pretty new Christian church at Twenty-second and Prospect avenue was dedicated with fitting and imposing cere-monies yesterday by Elder F. M. Raines, of monies yesterday by Elder F. M. Raines, of Topeka. The church is one of the most beautiful in the city and will make a very pleasant and comfortable home for the active working congregation that erected it. The services were held at 11 a. m., and again in the evening. At each service a special musical programme was rendered. The pastor of the church is the Rev. A. B. Philips, who has shown great tact in the work of completing the church and getting matters ready for the dedication. The church was fully described in Saturday's issue of the Journal.

he Cornerstone Laid in the Presence of a Vast Crowd.

The services attending the laying of the cornerstone of the Holy Rosary church, corner of Missouri avenue and Campbell street, yesterday afternoon, were witnessed by a crowd of people estimated at 4,000. The Very Rev. Father J. J. Giennon, of the The Very Rev. Father J. J. The visiting priests chanted the Psalms and litany.

At 3 o'clock the orders of Italian Union Brothers and Knights of Father Mathew formed in line at the door of the old church on Fifth and Cherry streets, and, headed by the First Regiment band of Kansas City, Kas., and DesFosses' band of Kansas City, Mo., marched to Eleventh and Grand avenue, where they were joined by No. 3 lodge of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The edice is only completed as far as the foundation, and it required some effort on the part of the reverent gentlemen to force their way through the large crowd which had assembled beforehand and was wedged into a solid mass of humanity on the temporary floor. Father Glennon mounted the rosurum and with hands lifted aloft, before the holy cruciffx, imparted a brief prayer. He then delivered a short sermon and gave way to Bishop Bonacum, who declared the cornerstone a fixture that time and man would not destroy, and consecrated the church to the worship of the Father, in the name of the Catholic church.

PERSONAL CHRISTLINESS.

Abstract of a Sermon Preached by Rev. H. M. Hackney. Rev. H. M. Hackney, of the Howard Memorial M. E. church, preached yester-day on "Personal Christliness." Among ther things he said:

"In the context the apostle dwells on the duty of social benevolence. 'Above all things,' he says, 'have fervent charity among yourselves, for charity shall cover a multitude of sins." "First-Whatever man has, is a gift of God. Physical health, social position, worldly wealth, influence, existence. "Secondly-Whatever man has he should benevolently employ for the advantage of others. He should not live to himself. What he receives he should distribute. This is God's universal law in all kingdoms, To absorb and not give means certain death. Monopoly is a sin against the constitution of things, A miser is a monster in the moral universe. doms. To absorb and not give means certain death. Monopoly is a sin against the constitution of things. A miser is a monster in the moral universe.

"But this gift spoken of here is the gift of personal religion or personal Christilness, This is a gift which makes all other gifts valuable. Two remarks are suggested. Personal Christilness is a divine gift. God's gifts to men may be divided into two classes: Those which He imparts, irrespective of human choice or effort. Such are light, air, the common elements of life, and existence itself. All these are given without any choice on our part. Those which He imparts, conditional on human choice and effort. Such are the crops of the farmer, the mental discipline of the student, the knowledge of the intelligent, the discoveries of the investigator, etc. Here we classify personal Christiness, It does not come to a man, irrespective of choice and effort. It requires both. A reception is demanded and a cultivation in order to development and fruitage must be observed. The great law of improvement is first, reception; second, cultivation.

"Now, in relation to this gift called Christliness, I desire to say that it is the greatest gift. It gives value to all other things. This is the true standard of measurement. To this crucible all things must apply for adjustment. Once settled here, they are settled forever. In this are to be found that which qualifies man to please God, bless humanity, serve the universe and inherit all things."

Memoirs of General COUNT DE SEGUR, of the French Academy, 1800-1812. Re-vised by his grandson, COUNT LOUIS DE SEGUR. 12mo. Cloth, $2.

This volume forms a natural companion or pendant to the "Memoirs of the Baron de Meneval." The Count de Segur's military career began in 1896. He was made a general in 1812 and took part in all the wars of the empire as a member of Napoleon's staff or the commander of a select corps. Hohenlinden, missions to Denmark and Spain, the execution of the Duc d'Enghien, the preparations for the invasion of England, Austerlitz, Ulm. Jena, Berlin, Spain, and the intrigues of Fouche and Bernalotte, are among the subjects of his chapters treated with the advantages of personal knowledge, and, in the earlier pages, of intimate information due to his father's associations and position. The historical value of the memoirs is obvious, and their interest is enhanced by the author's graphic and lucid style. DE SEGUR. 12mo. Cloth, $2.
